

Film Analysis Directions

Select one of the films produced in your chosen decade. View it at home and complete the graphic organizer about its contents. Then, do a 2-page analysis of the film to express in what ways the film fits Toplin's definition of feature films' use in the "history" genre.

Due: Friday, May 9th

Focus Standards

*Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text...

*Integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented in different media or formats as well as in words in order to address a question...

*Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas, concepts, and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content.

*Gather relevant information from multiple authoritative print and digital sources, using advanced search effectively; assess the strengths and limitations of each source in terms of the task, purpose, and audience; integrate information into the text selectively to maintain the flow of ideas, avoiding plagiarism and over-reliance on any one source and following a standard format for citation.
